PRISONER SCATHED WHEN COURT PASSES SENTENCE

Monday afternoon E. Thayer, who was found guilty by a jury of assault with intent to kill, for his brutal attack upon Bessie O'Connor, was brought into court for sentence. The law provides for this offense a sentence of not less than one year nor more than fourteen years, the time which the prisoner may serve between these points being at the discretion of the state board of pardon and parole. Preliminary to pronouncing the sentence, Judge Horsey denied the motion for a new trial made by his counsel, and then proceeded to deliver a most scathing rebuke to the prisoner for the heartless and brutal nature of his crime.—Las Vegas Age.

HIGH SCHOOL NAMED

The branch of the Clark county high school located at Bunkerville has been christened "Virgin high school." Among the other activities connected with the district, a new high school is to be built, bids having been opened for that purpose yesterday. The Bunkerville district is second to none in the interest the people take in all school matters.—Las Vegas Age.

IMPROVEMENT IN MONARCH

Some excellent stringers are being cut in the upraise from the 1000-foot level of the Monarch Pittsburg. The intermediate drift is also following a formation that shows values, but is not commercial across its entire face.

WAYS OF WHITE MAN

The Indians are fast acquiring the ways of the white man, as evidenced by a buck living near Reno, who recently wrote out several checks which are alleged to be worthless. The Indian is being held by the Reno authorities on a charge of forgery.

NORTH STAR VEIN OPENS TO TWO FEET

MAY PROVE TO BE EXTENSION OF MARTHA LEAD OF THE MONTANA

The vein encountered in the 900-foot workings of the North Star has opened up to two feet and the values this morning were an ounce and a half of gold and 98.2 ounces silver, or a total of better than $70. The vein when first cut was a foot in width and carried lower values. There is still doubt as to whether it is a recovered faulted segment of the C. F. K. or an extension of the Martha vein from the Montana, which paid the first dividend, $50,000, on Montana stock. The vein is being drifted on. The management will not express itself as to the value of the strike until further development work has given full proof.

LEASERS PREPARING FOR BIG SHIPMENTS

GOOD NEWS EXPECTED SHORTLY FROM THE MONTANA'S MINE IN ARIZONA

Last week the leasers in the Montana Tonopah made the record breaking output since the granting of the leases. They are hoisting very little ore this week, but are preparing for another big output next week, when a number will hoist consecutively. They are greatly pleased with their blocks and few of them are doing dead work, but advancing on stringers of better than ordinary grade, with frequent enlargement to ledge proportions. President Knox of the company will arrive in camp some time next week, when he will bring news of the company's Commonwealth operations in Arizona. It is not likely that there will be any important developments from that property until the shaft is sunk another hundred feet and lateral work is done. In the meantime the mill is profitably employed on ores from the upper levels of the property.

TUNGSTEN PROPERTY

NEAR SODAVILLE SOLD

Recently David Atkins of San Francisco visited the tungsten find of C. E. Noble, near Sodaville, and after sampling the ore deposit took an option on the property. This week Mr. Noble, accompanied by L. B. Spencer, went to San Francisco and closed up the deal, the consideration being a considerable figure, and the first payment being $5000, says the Western Nevada Miner.

Another 12-horse team, loaded with building material, left the Wittenberg warehouse yesterday, bound for the Joe Nay ranch, where Mr. Nay is erecting a modern home.

FREDDIE CORLE IS A HAPPY BENEDICT

FORMER RESIDENT OF TONOPAH TAKES UNTO HIMSELF A BLUSHING BRIDE

Freddie Corle, who formerly resided in this city, and is a son of Mrs. Thomas E. Shaughnessy, is now a benedict. The Reno Gazette tells the story:

As the members of Kerak temple of the Order of Mystic Shrine were preparing to board train No. 6 at the Oakland pier on their return trip to Reno, Fred Corle, cornetist in the band and member of the Gazette force, whispered in Dr. G. C. Steinmiller's ear that he did not want to leave San Francisco just then and would like to have his transportation extended. Dr. Steinmiller agreed and, as Fred was leaving, asked why he wished to remain behind.

Corle was now near the entrance to the station and, seeing that he could escape to the boat, told the assembled shriners that he had been married Thursday morning.

The train pulled out, leaving Fred and his wife, formerly Miss Nellie Jones, at the Oakland pier, while the surprised shriners showered their congratulations on the happy couple from the rear platform of the train.

The bridegroom is an old resident of Reno, was formerly at the University of Nevada, and has been employed on the Gazette for several years. Mrs. Corle is a graduate of Heald's business college and has resided in Reno for some years with her father, an employee of the Virginia & Truckee railroad.

MOTION TO STRIKE OUT BILL OVERRULED

JUDGE AVERILL HANDS DOWN AN OPINION IN THE NEVADA TEL. & TEL. CASE

In the case of the Nevada Telephone-Telegraph company, against the Nevada Tax commission et al, Judge Averill this morning handed down a ruling on motion to strike bill of exceptions. It appears that on July 19, 1915, a ruling was made and filed denying a new trial and that on July 21 notice of this ruling reached the attorneys for the defendants, after which latter date they had by statute twenty days within which to file a bill of exceptions.

The motion to strike the bill of exceptions to the ruling of the court refusing a new trial is overruled, and said bill of exceptions is, therefore, allowed to stand, for whatever it may be worth.

OPERATION PERFORMED ON AFFECTED EYE

James Graham, a former commissioner of Nye county, was operated on yesterday by Drs. Richards & McLeod for an affection of his eye. The old gentleman was already blind in one eye and while he was out prospecting some time ago a fragment of rock struck him in the center of the retina of the other eye and he was removed to the hospital after pneumonia had formed. The operation was a very critical one and it is not yet known whether or not the sight will be restored.

STOCK IN DEMAND

North Star was the stock in heaviest demand on this morning's board. It opened today at 13 bid, with heavy orders from the east. News of the finding of what is supposed to be the Martha vein caused interest to be taken in this property, as well as in other Tonopahs, despite the fact that the price of silver is shaded off today.

BIG CROPS RAISED

It has been announced by government officials that Nevada has a considerable wealth in her crops, which are larger this year than any heretofore. The wheat and potato crops are particularly large, the former amounting to 1,590,000 bushels, while the potato crop is estimated to exceed 2,940,000 bushels. Practically everything on the farmers' list shows an increase over last year.

BUILDING BOOM AT RENO

There are many new homes being built in Reno this season, as shown by the number of permits issued by the city engineer. The total value of the construction work under way is close to $500,000 and the comparative figures show that more money has been spent this year for building purposes than in any previous year. The month of September leads with $60,000.

INTEREST IN TONOPAH

Within the past two weeks there have been a number of brokers, mine officials and investors, as well as others who are interested in mining in Tonopah registered at the local hotels. Improvement in local physical conditions as well as in the stock market are responsible for these calls. There is every evidence that Tonopah is shortly to become a center of interest in the speculative and investment markets.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

Tonight the patrons of the popular little playhouse will have the pleasure of seeing a four-part feature enacted during a raging flood and produced by the Balboa Film company at Long Beach, Cal. "Will o' the Wisp" is so different from anything you have ever seen upon the screen and yet such an interesting drama that you will voice it the best picture entertainment in America. The photography is marvelously clear notwithstanding the fact that many of the scenes were taken in the very midst of a California flood that destroyed many lives and millions of dollars worth of property. The deluge was extensively described in newspapers at the time, and no one thought for a moment that any motion picture concern would have the hardihood to produce a feature while surrounded by so many dangers. But the Balboa company performed the unexpected and "Will o' the Wisp" is the result. Together with this feature will be shown two preliminary reels which will be run before the feature.

Tomorrow, Pathe Weekly and "The Warrens of Virginia," featuring the noted little star, Blanche Sweet, in a great Civil War drama. At the matinee Monday $5 will be given away.

The Ford weekly, giving a passing view of the world's progress, will also be exhibited today.
